Now I Lay Me Down To Sleep Foundation is an International organisation providing photographers around the world who take the most beautiful photographs of your baby as a gift to you (take at look at the sample images on their website).

Their mission statement is as follows:

“To introduce remembrance photography to parents suffering the loss of a baby with the free gift of professional portraiture. We believe there images serve as an important step in the family’s healing process by honouring their child’s legacy. ”

For information on the service provided in Ireland by Now I Lay me Down To Sleep please log on to their website at www.nowilaymedowntosleep.org

The Now I Lay Me Dow To Sleep Photographers based here in Ireland are not trained by A Little Lifetime Foundation and therefore we do not accept any responsibility for any claims with regard to NILMDTS Photographers communications with parents, families or Health Care Professionals or any claim in relation to taking photographs.
